

Dan Carter, M.D., P.A.
Orthopedic Surgeon

Specialties

Sports Medicine
Joint Replacement
General Orthopedics

Areas of Interest

Hip & Knee Replacements
Carpal Tunnel Syndrome
Sports Medicine

Dr. Carter practices as a true general orthopedist treating a wide variety of orthopedic problems. He has extensive experience in all types of bone and joint injuries as well as hip and knee joint replacement. He is particularly experienced in minimal incision endoscopic carpal tunnel release surgery and knee arthroscopy. He has a special interest in sports medicine serving as a Lufkin High School team physician since 1980.

Honors & Memberships

Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons
Texas Medical Association
Angelina Medical Society
Texas Orthopaedic Association
Texas Society of Sports Medicine

Education & Training

Undergraduate	Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, TX
Medical School	Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, TX
Orthopedic Residency	Scott &amp; White Memorial Hospital, Temple, TX

Certifications

Board Certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery since 1980

